A Mother's Prayer

Dear Lord, It's such a hectic day, with little time to stop and pray. For life's been anything but calm, since You called me to be a mom—Running errands, matching socks, building dreams with stacking blocks. Cooking, cleaning and finding shoes, and other things that children lose. Finding lids on bottled mugs, wiping tears and giving hugs. A stack of last week's mail to read—Where's the quit time I need? Yet, when I steal a moment, Lord, at the sink or ironing board, to ask the blessing of Your grace, I see them, in my little one's face, that You have blessed me all the while. And I stoop to kiss that precious smile.
