Is faith illogical, as some would have you believe? No, not at all. Some of the most brilliant people I have ever known were also men and women of deep faith in Christ, and without exception they said they believed in the Gospel because it made sense. Believing our intricate world happened by accident, they said, takes more faith than believing in God!

But there was another reason for their faith. They were convinced Jesus Christ was who He claimed to be: God in human flesh, sent to save us from our sins.

For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made.
