Praying for us.

What a gift to have Jesus praying for us today ... and every day. At the heart of that praying is that we be one just as God is one. To be like God is perfection, indeed. Though it is all grace, it does compel us to action. Any of the mercy works will do. As we act, let us take up the last line of the last line of the Book of Revelation. It is also a song we sing in Advent. "Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!"

- ◆ How will I give thanks for Jesus' praying for me?
- ◆ For what will I pray this week?
- ◆ How will Christ's love of me—and each of us and all of us—spill into action this week?
